President's Message

At the October Board meeting, Eugene Collias APSA submitted his resignation from the position of Membership Coordinator. Eugene and his wife Dorothy joined SPS in November 1974. He has served the club four years as President, one year as Vice President, three years as Secretary, seven years as Treasurer, five and a half years as Cable Releases editor, and three years as Membership Coordinator. He has been a Salon Chair three times. He has prepared the certificates for the year-end awards for 20 years. He has been awarded the Service Award twice. We give him our heartfelt thanks for all he has done for SPS, and are glad we will still see him at regular club meetings as his health allows.

Bernard Winer has also recently resigned as Director on the SPS Board. We thank him for his service during the past months. His insights have been an important contribution to the Board.

Because of security concerns, we will no longer be able to keep the church's upstairs doors unlocked before and during our meetings. We will enter and leave the building through the back downstairs door. The handicapped entrance will be unlocked until 7:30. Then we will lock that door and post the cell phone number of someone who can unlock the door for anyone who arrives after that time and needs the elevator.

You may have noticed a container for contributions near where the refreshments are served. The contributions aren't keeping up with the need, so if you drink coffee or eat snacks, please consider contributing a bit more or bringing a snack or bottle of juice.

Congratulations to SPS members who have had their images shown in recent exhibits. In the Mountlake Terrace Art Show, Leia Smith entered Morning Beauty and Dick McMahon entered Nebulous Tulip, which won 2nd Place and $100. At the Washington State Fair in Puyallup, Leia Smith entered Produce Around Washington. Sam Ruljancich showed three prints: Searching for Water, 46 Jaguar, and Emerald Lake, Yoho, NP, BC Can, which received a Judges Choice award. Kathy Admire's print Great Horned Owl Takeoff received an Honorable Mention. Former member John Smiley showed Post Alley Gum Wall Tunnel, and former member Wendy Engquist won second place in the General category with Abstract Beach. At the City of SeaTac's Photography Exhibit, Sam Ruljancich had two prints accepted, Washington State History Museum and Emerald Lake, Yoho NP. Edric Daida showed Autumn Avalanche and Bones of Lust, Peggy Curtis showed The Photographers and On the Road. Wendy Engquist won a purchase award with Pond Ice Abstract II.

November 19 - Education Night

Creative Images with Plug-Ins and Filters by Dave Johanson--With the application of a few adjustment layers using any of several plug-ins, one can easily come up with some very nice creative images. These can be in the realm of fantasy or just different approaches to the same image; i.e, oil paint or water color. Conversely, the use of layers can be applied to simply improve the image over what was originally captured. Dave will demonstrate both approaches.
