Change Login Password

Your Login Name and Password will be used when you login to this web site. You should never share any password with anyone, not even a web site administrator. Web site administrators have the ability to reset your account to a random password if necessary.

Your password must be at least 8 characters long, although we recommend 12. It should contain a mixture of alphabetic and numeric characters and should not contain any real words. Punctuation characters are allowed and encouraged. The most secure and easily remembered passwords will use the first letters of each word in a phrase, while inserting numeric or punctuation characters in meaningful locations.

Consider using a password management product for your browsers. These products can generate and save complex passwords for you and you will not need to remember your passwords.

Image Database

Your submission to a competition does two things

- It uploads a copy to your personal Image Library
- It connects the competition to the copy

Other uses of that image connect to the library copy

Thus only one copy of an image exists in the database

When you enter end-of-year, all your images will be available from the library

What's a Competition?

It's a collection of images with a theme, maximum entries per person and optional judging

Projected image night has 3 or 4 competitions: Open, Nature, Creative and Assignment

An event like small groups may have just one unjudged "competition"

What's a Gallery?

A set of images drawn from competitions or the image library,

like Best of April Projected images or your own gallery from a field trip

Can be displayed as a Slideshow, a Grid or Individually full screen

The screens for image submission have a lot of options and words of explanation, so they look complicated

However there are just a few buttons to push and two entries to type

Submitting a couple images is fast and straightforward in practice

If you are unable to login please see the first slide or contact membership@seattlephotographic.com

The rules and sizing for images are at

Changes to be aware of:

- (1) You no longer need to use any special file naming. This submission process knows who you are and the image category. You type in the displayed title after the image is uploaded.
- (2) We recommend you continue to size your images to 1920 max width and 1200 max height. This fills the projector or typical computer screen to show at the best quality. The site will downsize larger images to fit the target, but will not upsize smaller ones.

Select the Competitions menu and Submit Images to a Competition for the list of open competitions

These are the recommended settings for collecting SPS Field Trip photos

Don't forget to Save it

The screenshot shows a web form titled 'Add New Gallery - 2'. It has a light blue background and a white border. The form is divided into two main sections. The top section is labeled 'Sequence' and contains a text input field with the value '100'. Above this field is a green arrow pointing to it from the left, and a yellow arrow points to it from the text 'Leave this at 100'. The bottom section is labeled 'Options' and contains a list of checkboxes and radio buttons. A yellow arrow points to this section from the text 'Settings shown are typical of galleries on the SPS site, but you are free to set as you wish in the Members area'. At the bottom of the form are two buttons: 'Cancel' and 'Update Gallery Options'. A yellow arrow points to the 'Update Gallery Options' button from the text 'Don't forget to Save it'. The form also includes a header section with the text 'Galleries within this category are sorted by sequence and then by Gallery Name.'

Only judged competitions will be listed and only images with awards or scores will be listed. You will only be able to assign multi-competition awards. Check each of the competitions to be processed. You must click "Assign Multi-Competition Awards" after selecting competitions.' Below this is an 'Assign Multi-Competition Awards' button. The main section is titled 'Competitions Needing Judging' and contains a table with columns: 'Select', 'Competition Date', 'Competition Title', 'Competition Type', and 'Judging Status'. The table lists three competitions, all with a 'Competition Date' of 10/16/2021. The first row is '21-10-05 Creative' (Creative Projected), the second is '21-10-05 Nature' (Nature Projected), and the third is '21-10-05 Open' (Open Projected). In the 'Select' column, each row has a 'Select' button and an 'Analyze Judging' button. A green circle highlights these two buttons for the first row. A green arrow points from the 'Analyze Judging' button of the first row down to the bottom of the slide. A yellow arrow points from the 'Earliest Competition Date to Select' field to the text 'Set the date range to include when the results are to be posted...'. Another yellow arrow points from the 'Competition Date' column header to the text 'Remember the "Competition Date" is when the results will be made available...'. A green arrow points from the 'Select Judge menu and Judging Queue for Website Judging' text to the top of the page.

How to Judge - 1

An important reminder

You may alter scores on the thumbnail images, although that is generally done while in full screen mode. To avoid losing your scores, you must click "Save Updates" before exiting this page or clicking a thumbnail to enter full screen mode.

Click on an image to start full screen viewing starting with that image. Please use the "Full Screen" mode of your browser. On most browsers you can press F11 to enter and exit full screen browser mode. When you use the "Exit" button to leave full screen mode you will return to an updated thumbnail view.

Select the "All Images" Competition Level if images are not visible

Judging Status

As a competition manager you can make corrections to a judge's scores and mark scoring as complete. Any changes you make will be marked with your identity as an audit trail. Select the judge below.

Bill Ray

You may also review all scoring using the Manage Competitions pages and using the "Images" button for a competition. A column on that page will display the scores and ranks assigned by judges.
